

The (International) Noise Conspiracy, A New Lan

my mouth is all dried up, my eyes are all shut we're speaking a new language baby, where words are not enough i can feel it coming, i can feel it explode, action reaction, overload the words are all boring, why don't you shut up cause we're counterculture fighters and they're fucking us up when we talk, we hear the revolution, in our noise there's revolution we will scream the revolution's coming, in our kiss we taste revolution if we spoke like we've never spoke before we'll rip out our tongue and watch it lose control and i would never repeat the phrases that i was taught in school, yeah and i would never repeat your inadequate roles and rules that's just sick power, cause i have fucked it up oh, oh my hands are tied baby, cause someone's all corrupt
i can feel it coming, i can feel it explode, action reaction, overload
and i would never repeat your inadequate roles and rules
