

The (International) Noise Conspiracy, All In All

I see the faces everywhere I wanna see them all, and I see the monikers written on the wall starts like an echo turns into a roar, the sound of silence never heard before
to find it right here, it's nothing new, to find it right here within all we do stories have been spoken struggles we've been through, look at these history to see what we can do to get together we're still learning how, the times are changing and our time is now
to find it right here, it's nothing new, to find it right here within all we do it's time to hold on, it's time to reach out... to find it right here, it's nothing new, to find it right here within all we do
it's time to hold on, it's time to reach out...
