

The (International) Noise Conspiracy, Breakout 2

Situations symptomatic
Define the objectified and, please, celebrate the phallic
But we are waiting for a sign
To deconstruct this before we run out of time
Remissions purely cosmetic
Seems like our features they are being cemented and static
So we are waiting for what this culture fears
The end of dress codes, pink/blue pants/skirts, right here

Yeah baby yeah we're gonna breakout!

Submissions systematic
Being born under the wrong sign can be so fucking tragic
The symptoms are getting out of hand
I'm scared too baby but I can't even begin to understand

Yeah baby yeah we're gonna breakout!

Hey sister I know you want to dance too
Without gender hanging over you
Said: just want to be free
Not some billboard advertising dream
Take action; take aim and some slick shoes
Take action; take aim and sing this new blues
Take action; take aim cause we know what to do

Yeah baby yeah we're gonna breakout!
