

The Jacksons, You've Changed

I remember when you was a little girl
I say you never ever ever wore curls
You wore nothing but an ole shaggy shaggy dress
I say you never ever tried to look your best

(chorus) Now when I look at you

All my love come running through You've changed & it's shown yeah
My love for you has grown yes it did now
You've changed & it shown

Yeah.....yeah,yeah.....

Your legs were little but now they are big instead of wearing ponytails you got a little ole red wig your eyes are pretty, you got some kissable lips
& I love they way you walk, way you sway your little hips
(chorus)
