

The Jam, Life From A Window

Looking from a hilltop, watching from a lighthouse, just dreaming
Up here I can see the world
Sometimes it don't look nice - but that's OK
Life from a window, I'm just taking in the view
Life from a window, observing everything around you
Staring at a grey sky, trying to paint it blue -
Teenage blue
Life from a window, I'm just taking in the view
Life from a window, watching everyone around you
Some people that you see around you
Tell you how devoted they are
They tell you something new on Sunday, but come Monday
They've changed their minds
I'm looking from a skyscraper
I'm standing on the Post Office tower
So I can see - all there is to see
Life from a window, I'm taking in the view
Life from a window, watching everything around you
I'm looking from a skyscraper
I'm standing on the Post Office tower
So I can see - all there is to see
