

The Jesus And Mary Chain, Silverblade

talking 'bout the things i lack choke me up with what i say shouting out for something standing up for nothing she's looking down but i just couldn't wait looks real tough when she talks that stuff and cries for another day looks real mean when she hits that scene cries like a silver queen aah help me

aah tell me
aah kill me
she can't come she's got to get you some my world has been undone and laugh at words gone wrong our love has been and gone aah

and i know just what i'm searching for in a world that's turned from me to her and it's coming to me anyway and it's coming from a silverblade from a silverblade
from a silverblade
