

The Jesus Lizard, Good Thing

When you take off your dress the whole world smiles and it's a joyous occasion, baby when you take off your shirt when you take off your stockings flower blossoms and bird sings commonplace is paradise when you take off your panties it just so happens I'm talking about the one and only good thing and when your completely naked all is wonderous and good no more hunger or fighting when we do the good thing
