

The Jesus Lizard, One Evening

One evening of pourin' booze
An eventide of hooch He'd always say, "That pick-me-up bone knocked me down."
Soakin' in the dark Dragged him to a desperate day
That dirty girl led him drunk away
And then his oats from the night before
Came up with the sun

Bad days had been but not like this Lost in a daze (Vaneo mayonnaise) Momming bed no good
And then his oats from the night before
Came up with the sun

This time he had a better idea this time he had a clue he had a precedent this time this time he knew what to do

That dirty girl led him drunk away
and left him in the sewer it was right there at that then time he knew he should never have screwed her
