

The Jet Set, Just Call Me

Nobody cared what I thought opinions
Nobody gave me a choice
According to you I should still be afraid
You wanted to control me
You didn't give a shit about my tears
I'm not afraid of you now cause freedom means the most
You wanted to steal my soul
I didn't let you
You wanted to destroy my faith
So, call me and tell me
That "I'm sorry" - DAD
That "I'm sorry"

Ref.

Just call me
Tell me it's your fault this time
Just call me
You can still turn back the time
You said to me, I don't stand a chance
Without you I'll be lost

Just call me

I will tell you that I'm strong
This is a little story about a girl I use to know
From a small town, no job, family have no money
Yawl know how is goes
Poorly educated taught to use what she can
She was sold by her dad to an older man

Ref.

Just call me...

He took her to his castle, which was in another land
He kept her in the basement, tied up by her hands
And she swore to escape if she ever got the chances
She was beaten, raped and sold like a whore
(and so much more) to all of his friends
Till one day she got loose and killed them with her bare hands
Sadden inside, because of the circumstance
Cause homicide wasn't never in her plans

Sasha

But my life is changing now
You won't see me cry this time
You won't see my tears no more
So, try your best and say I'm sorry

Ref.

Just call me...

This is some thing that I'll never forget
As a child I held it all in
Till today I'm still crying on the inside
As the day's turned to night
And night turned to morn
Hunger set in she was completely lost
Not knowing what was really going on
Survive was the key
She had to use her skills once again
What she new best
Was how to seduce another man
Don't take this in passing
Make it true, it happen to this little girl
So it could happen to you
Heed these words people

Feel me
Don't you know, it could happen to you to
