

The Juliana Theory, Everything

How are you feeling? What are your reasons?
Do you feel love or a lack thereof?

Love is a bond without reason, a cry for connection, a light in your eyes.
Love is a reason for living, a reason for trying, a reason for life.

Forget the feeling. Forget all your reasons.
Life is love or the lack thereof.

Love is a bond without reason, a cry for connection, a light in your eyes.
Love is a reason for living, a reason for trying, a reason to cry.

Love is a bond without reason, a cry for connection, a light in your eyes.
Love is a reason for living, a reason for dying.

Love is everything. Love is everything. Love is everything. Love is everything.

Oh love, you move me.
Oh love, you move me.
Love move in me.
Love, move me.
Love is everything.
