

The Juliana Theory, Leave Like A Ghost (Drive A

It's a ghost town baby,
It will drive you crazy,
When you rely on all your friends.
I see people sucked in,
There's no way to stop them,
From becoming walking dead.
You're still living,
But barely breathing,
Get out while you can.

Just drive away,
'Cause no one here will save you.
Drive away and don't look back,
You're gone.

It's a ghost town, sister,
I've seen your dreams wither,
And that's what's giving me the creeps.
Spend your whole life waiting,
In a town that's fading,
It's a never ending sleep.
You're still breathing,
Barely breathing,
Get out while you can.

Just drive away,
'Cause no one here will save you.
Drive away and don't look back.
Just drive away,
'Cause nothing here will change you
Drive away and don't look back.

Cause it's so alone here,
We drink all alone here,
Nobody feels like we feel like we do.
We're all alone here,
We'll die all alone here.
No one, yeah, nobody feels like we feel like we do.
Like we do.

Just drive away,
'Cause no one here will save.
Drive away and don't look back.
Just drive away,
'Cause no one here will save you.
Drive away and don't look back.
Just drive away,
'Cause nothing here will change you.
Drive away and don't look back.

(Drive away, drive away-ay-ay-ay) (x4)

You're still breathing,
Barely breathing,
Get out while you can.
