

The Juliana Theory, The Hardest Things they couldn't have told me, that it would be like this that it could be like this, for you i wish i would've known, that it could be like this that it would be like this, for you i know you're hurting i know you're reaching out i'm sure you wonder what this is all about you could be spiteful for whats been done to you i'm sure you feel it you know i feel it too

sometimes the hardest things in life are the things we have to do and even when we feel its right i never want to hurt you

its never simple deciding what should be theres still a void here when you're an absentee you could be angry
but you're a bigger man we know you'll make it never forget to stand

you've always been you always will you've always been a part of me... you'll always be a part of me the hardest things in life
