

The Juliana Theory, Week Long Embrace

The canopy above my head is all I see
Another day
Another night I'm lying here
Falling asleep

I sure hope that they do not think I'm lazy
And I hope that they don't think that I'm a slob
I hope that I don't make myself way too much at home
I hope you care when I'm gone

Watch another movie
Play another song
Read another passage in the book
Spend another hour
Of just another day
I hope I don't spend way too much time falling asleep

I sure hope that you always know I'll miss you
And I hope that when you sleep you're looking up
Cause when I rest I think of all those tired times
And I can't sleep when you're gone

Those closed eyes remind me
Of what we have
So please don't open them yet
