

The Katies, Girl

with a pillow on her Brainwave in slow phase she's misplaced with no trace and no thought of ever coming back there to a blank stare and cold hair so beware and who cares I can't dare try a fight her off

(chorus)

and you can go away and stay there and I won't even bother you

(verse)

she breaks away to find the thing with all the things that she will never get well she's coming down hard and she won't forget her brainwave in small phase and replaced with dual gauge and no taste I can't say I try to fight her off
