

The Kelly Family, Burning fire

My heart is true, but the road is long and Im a fool, cause I do you wrong its hard today, to stay in line but Ill try it all, anything you want you got it all, you got it all today you got my soul
burning fire
burning fire
burning fire
I lost it all, so you can find it its hard to breathe, in this world today but if mercy is, the key to loving you got it all, you got it all today
burning fire
burning fire
burning fire
so love it hides, behind your silence and yesterday, is gone today so I will love you now, like if nothing happended
