

The Kelly Family, I Can't Help Myself

Talk about lovers

They're both young and very pretty

They're in love but he betrays her

He says sorry and so she wants to believe him that it's why

He's got her on his hooks

Bridge

What you do to me I can do to you

Babe set me free then I'll let you be

Come on, come on now don't you fool around cause you're hurting me won't you let me be

Chorus

You got me on your hooks

You're a bastard

You got me on your hooks

You're a bastard

You know it's true

You got me on your hooks

Then one day he decides to marry her

She doesn't want to

Because she doesn't believe him

I saw you kissing that girl last week

But I still think you love me

That's why you got me

Bridge

Chorus

I know it's crazy

But I know it won't be long

I know it's crazy

But I know I will survive lalala lalala

Bridge

You got me on your hooks
