

The Kelly Family, It's okay now

Now that I know my enemy
I know what I'm fighting for
Now that his mercy is on my case
His hands are kind to me
It's OK now
It's really OK now, oh babe yeah
It's OK now
It's really OK now
Now that I've resolved it all
All the noise and lights around me
A million screams and more
I seem to lose my head at times now
I've torn it like a rag
It's OK now...
Times will be getting hard
Some friends will fall apart
I'll go on, on and on
I'll try to stand up straight and high
But times won't let me by
I don't know if I'll survive
It's OK now...
I see it all with different eyes now
I've learned to understand
That it's OK now
