

The Kelly Family, Looking For Love

Looking for love
But you just don't seem to give it
I'm the one who mostly needs it
Pushing me around
I'm so hungry for your love
When you come around
You pretend that you don't see me
Oh you know that I do need you
Keeping me away
I'm so hungry for your love
Your need shows in the shadows that you leave
I'm so afraid you don't seem to get
I was looking for love
But you just don't seem to give it
Is anybody there who will give it
Someone help me out
I'm so hungry for your love
Won't let go of your sorrow
Won't let go of your self
With the help of love we can follow
The light in the dark
Won't let go of your sorrow
I'm so hungry for your love
