

The Kelly Family, Special Girl

I see you now you don't fool me 'cause i've seen this before I'm no preacher i'm no pleaser i'm no hero i'm no dirt bag scum bag you make me sick with your lies i'm the one with the smile that's right i see you now you're the wolf you don't fool me i've seen it before Joeyism full of reason eye for an eye might is right i'm not your clown i'm not here to amuse you are you talking to me that's right i'm not blind that's right what about my life is it worth anything now wow she's a special girl i can tell
wow she's a special girl i can tell I see you now you don't fool me 'cause i've seen it before what brings devious you bring devious i'm not insane in my brain kiss my ass no more lies in my life stop the fight that's right
