

The Kelly Family, Try and forgive

Try and forgive, try and forget
Forgive yourself and your friends
And try not to hurt again (2x)
From every side you've been condemned
Stones, stones, stones
Hate only kills, blind falls the heart
It pains the head and your
Friends too and ties too, na, na (2x)
And I for one will not condemn you
Back of my friends, don't you can calm
And let the angry once swear of,
Just sing and smile along (2x)
And forgive yourself,
Yes, forgive yourself,
As I have forgiven you
Secrets of life are hard to find
So get your tea in to this one
Who cheers bread and wine (2x)
And feel forgiven,
That's important, feel forgiven
To this one who cheers bread and wine
And forgive others than
To this one who cheers bread and wine
