

The Kelly Family, We Have Come To Adore Him

A child is born into this world
Carried by a thousand wings
To show me the meaning of my beating heart
And who I truly am
And thanks giving I bow to you
Oh you opened up my eyes
You brought me here, now I belong to you
A new life has begun

Chorus:

We have come to adore Him
We have come to the beloved Son
In the arms of my Savior I know Im someone
How I wish I could kiss those wounds
But not just once but a thousand times
For the bled for every stone that I have thrown Despite the shame I know His love will never die

Chorus:

We have come to adore Him
We have come to the beloved Son
In the arms of my Savior
In the arms ohohoh
So take it all, I trust in You cause You know how weak I am Still You keep telling me not to be afraid
A true life has begun

Chorus:

We have come to adore Him
We have come to the beloved Son
In the arms of my Savior
In the arms ohohoh / x2
