

The Kid LAROI, Call Me Instead (feat. YoungBoy

Don't let it go to your head
Things that they said
They made their bed (Made their bed)
Give you reasons you should call me instead
Tears, what it shed
I know you're scared

Uh
How's everyone know what's best for you
When I'm right here next to you?
Said that you get it, but you never do
Said that he loved you, it was never true
So now you're torn between
Lettin' it in and gettin' revenge
Bein' out or bein' with your friends
Closin' your heart and keepin' it open
No, these decisions don't get easy
I told you I would not disappear on you
I'm prayin' for a lifetime miracle 'cause
The taste the love in your mouth got sour, sour, sour, uh
Don't trip, I'll be there within an hour
The past yours, but the future is ours

Don't let it go to your head
Things that they said
They made their bed (Made their bed)
Give you reasons you should call me instead
Tears, what it shed
I know you're scared

T-R-U-T-H, the truth, I love you
After all we been through, look at how we done grew
I want that Rolls Royce and you in it too
I have a nothing for to say to your crew, hold up
I seen you pass out because of that spam
Don't come back 'til you spend one M, yes ma'am
Ooh, they want your shoes and I choose you
Ooh, I act a fool, out the roof wit' it
How about you buy you brand-new car, pull up on your block?
All them hoes gon' jump in and they salt us down
I make Lil Dump flash out if I don't want 'em 'round
That's your bitch, not my friend, tell her calm down
She gon' tell you to leave
Then double back all on her own, bitch, please
I got your symbol and heart on my sleeve
Don't listen to anything that that bitch speak

Don't let it go to your head
Things that they said
They made their bed (Made their bed)
Give you reasons you should call me instead
Tears, what it shed
I know you're scared

We're both hanging on with one hand
'Cause everything happened so fast
I look at her and I see pure fear in her eyes
And I know she most definitely saw pure fear in my eyes too
And that's the first time I felt like I was gonna die
