

The Kiffness, Ha Hee (Singing Cat Song) x Chai K

Nothing is ever as it seems, like a cat saying "Ha Hee"
It might sound like random noise to you, but to me it's an uplifting tune

Music is everywhere my friend, so open your heart and you will ascend
To the heights that only angels see, let's sing it together the song of "Ha Hee"

Open your heart and let the music flow in, awaken the universe that's laying within
This life can be magic if you open your eyes, a cat is a symphony in disguise
