The Kills, Rodeo Town

If I'm so evil Then why are you satisfied If I'm so evil Why are you satisfied? I had a dream about your ghost You're breathing down my neck Baby it starts in the shower By letting your ashes down the drain You were telling me how This ain't no Rodeo Town I caught the gun But you made me set it down You were telling me how This ain't no Rodeo Town I caught the gun But you made me set it down If I'm so evil Then why are you all satisfied? If I'm so evil Why are you satisfied? When you left you said I'm gonna keep an eye on you Well I don't mind if you do But you can't keep quiet You were telling me how This ain't no Rodeo Town I caught the gun But you made me set it down You were telling me how This ain't no Rodeo Town I caught the gun But you made me set it down You were telling me how This ain't no Rodeo Town I caught the gun But you made me set it down You were telling me how This ain't no Rodeo Town I caught the gun But you made me set it down
