

The King, Maybe

MAYBE

By King

There i was waiting for a chance hoping that u'll understand the things i wanna say

But my love
stronger than before i wanna see u more and more but you close the door

Why don't u try to open up heart
i won't take so much of your time.....

Maybe it's wrong to say please love me too coz i know u never do somebody else is waitin' there inside for you.... maybe its wrong to love you more each day coz i know its here to stay.... but i know to whom you should belong....

I believe what u said to me we should set each other free that's how u want it to be....

repeat II then chorus....

coda:
but my love is strong
i don't knopw if this is wrong
but i know to whom you should belong.....
