

The Kingston Trio, Dooley

(One for the money, two for the show, possum up the gum tree, do-si-do!

Dooley was a good old man. He lived beyond the mill. Dooley had two daughters and a forty-gallon
One gal watched the boiler, the other watched the spout. Mama corked the bottles and old Dooley

Chorus:

Dooley, slippin' up the hollar. Dooley, tryin' to make a dollar. Dooley, give me a swaller and I'll pay y
(Repeat last time.)

The revenueers came for him, a-slippin' through the woods but Dooley kept behind them all and nev
Dooley was a trader when into town he come. Sugar by the bushel and molasses by the ton.

(Chorus)

I remember, very well, the day old Dooley died. The woman folk looked sorry and the men sat arou
Now, Dooley's on the mountain, he lies there, all alone. They put a jug beside him and a barrel for

(Chorus)

I'll pay you back some day. I'll pay you back some day.