

The Kingston Trio, Love Has Gone

My love has gone. My dreams have passed away. Her funny way, my sunny day are gone

Chorus:

And, yet, I think of her when first we met, when first we loved before my love was gone.

I hear her voice beside me in the night. I see her hand, yet here I stand alone.

(Chorus)

My love has gone and ever, ever will I be a star-crossed lover tossed upon the sea.

(Chorus, twice)
