

The Kinks, There Is No Life Without Love

Truly, oh truly
There is nothing in this life without your love

This is a story of my true love
There is no life without love

Truly, oh truly
There is nothing in this life without your love
Truly, oh truly
There is nothing in this life without your love

There is no life without sunshine
There is no rest without sleeping

Truly, oh truly
There is nothing in this life without your love
Truly, oh truly
There is nothing in this life without your love
