

The Kinks, Willesden Green

Well, I tried to settle down, Fulham Broadway
And I tried to make my home in Golders Green
But I gotta get that train
And go back home again
Oh, how I miss the folks back home in Willesden Green

"You know, I tried, I really tried to settle in this big city
And I always thought that I could make it all on my very own
But there's one thing that keeps calling me
To that little, that little semi-detached
That's the folks, yeah, the folks back home
In Willesden Green"
