The Knack, Let Me Out

one two three four let me out come and get me out 'cause i've been stuck in for too long let me out out come get me out baby maybe be where i belong the time is right for stepping out in the light my cup is full and i'll be pulling the wool tonight let me out come get me out you know that she don't understand let me out out come get me out baby i'm just living for the band it's getting tighter and i'm feeling the bite but i don't care because i'm getting my share tonight tonight tonight whoo let me out come get me out i'm just a prisoner of your love let me out out come get me out baby i will never have enough i guess i'm getting while the getting is right she may be faking but i'm taking my chance tonight

let me out