

The Kovenant, From the storm of the shadows

From the storm of shadows
In the mist of night
Through the dark
masterlands of time
Hear my cries of hate
Hate for all
As I wander through the cold
Within my black soul
A fire burns
The fire of god's destruction
The shadowstorms
Howl again
The light will fade away and die
Black souls...eternal souls
Like a prison that haunts the night
Swept away into the night
From the shadows...
King of the night
Through the mighty winter
My eternal winter
I am king...I rule this world
I rise upon my throne
The dragonthrone
I am emperor...and I am God
"I long for the dark night
And the storms to come again"
From the storm of shadows
...a domain of hate shall rise
Black souls...eternal souls
Like a prison that haunts the night
Swept away into the night
From the shadows...
King of the night
