

The Kovenant, The dark conquest

A visitor appears before my eyes
A vision where I am king...eternal
And in the blackness of night
I shall conquer...I shall rise
My eyes they gleam with triumph and glory
Many battles I have fought...and won
And for centuries have I ruled as king
But still the greatest conquest is to come
I will forever seek
To dominate the weak
Oh...how they shall suffer
The anger of my hate
But victory shall come...
Embrace the dark conquest
"Forever
winter...forever night..."
A tear
