

The Lemonheads, C'mon Daddy

i feel like steven is my father and i don't know why but i realized when he looked my eyes i feel like steven is my daddy and it ain't no lie but i wanna hold ya till the end of time so come on daddy, release my arms come on daddy i wanna feel your charms come on daddy , release my arms i wanna hold ya till the end of time you know i was your baby since the age of nine you know was your baby for a long long time but something inside me told me you werent mine something inside me told me you told lies
so come on daddy, release my arms
i wanna hold you, i wanna hold you (higher) i wanna holdtill the end of time.
