

The Lemonheads, Sad Girl

Misdirected girls in town just a layin' down by a pool.
Check the scene check all 'round,
be sure 'n act a fool.

You don't even know your name.
You should bow your head in shame.
But you say that it's all right.
You go out night after night.
You're sad girl.
Ain't it a shame?
You're sad girl.
Aren't you a pain?

Been around for quite some time,
there's other's been around longer still.
Dye your hair get fucked up, pass out.
You got no reason to be on the pill. Sad girl, sad girl, sad girl, sad girl.
