

The Libertines, Don't Look Back Into The Sun

Don't look back into the sun
Now you know that your time has come
And they said that it would never come for you
Oh my friend you haven't changed
Looking rough and living strange
And I know you've got a taste for it too
They will never forgive you but they won't let you go
No she'll never forgive you but she won't let you go, oh no
Don't look back into the sun
You cast your cards but you're on the run
And all the lives said hurt, did you say
When they played that song at the death disco
It started fast but it ends so slow
And all the time it reminded me of you
Ah they will never forgive you but they won't let you go
She'll never forgive you but she won't let you go, oh no
