The Lonely Island, Cool Guys Don't Look at Explo

Intro (Samberg):
It seems like these days the whole world's on fire.
Things keep blowin' the hell up,...
And while all those rubberneckers and looky loos stand slackjawed starin,
The real men have the nuts to walk away.
Song:
Cool guys don't look at explosions
They blow things up and then walk away
Who's got time to watch an explosion?
Because cool guys have errands that they have to walk to..
Keep walkin', keep shinin'
Don't look back keep on walkin'
Keep struttin' slow motion
The more you ignore it, the cooler you look
Samberg: Ladies &amp; gentlemen, please join me in welcoming..
Mr. Neil Diamond!
Will Ferrell: ha ha ha....Where are we?!
Cool guys don't look at explosions
They stride for it in their diamond covered boots
They wear jumpsuits with glitter and rhinestones
And walk away in slow motion..
Keep walkin, you're cruisin..
Cherry Cherry...Sweet Caroline..

Samberg: Going solo....JJ Abrams!

Cool guys don't look at explosions,
Walk fast from the roaring explosion,
And don't think about the people you killed
