

The Lords, Shadows Of Massacre

(music: Damien Lempiere, Catherine Lempiere, lyrics: Catherine Lempiere)

The fire is up the hill
The winds of destruction give you the eternal power Warrior, evil and hate, pierce the heart of your enemy with your mighty sword
Glory to war, glory to the immortal warrior

Listen to the messenger
"By the spirit of evil, in the northern misty forest drink the blood of victory, weaking have to die Death and destruction, your only might Glory to the war, glory to the immortal warrior"

As the sun beyond the eastern mountains
Beyond the dark seas, The Shadows of Massace
The Flames of Conquest, the Wrath of Warfare
Honour the son of the mighty god of war
The Immortal Warrior
