

The Lovemakers, Is It Alright

Is it alright
If I sneak into your room at night?
And banish all the things
That make you lonely

Strange girl All dressed up in red
How come I just see you in bed
At night the dark hides nothing from me

Sunlight shines upon your face
Faraway eyes
Are you waiting for the darkness?

Do you want to
Well is it
Is it alright
If I sneak into your room at night?
And banish all the things
That make you lonely

Is it alright
(Background Singer:) (Is it alright)
If I just turn out the light
(Is it alright)
Make you stay 'til morning comes
And hold me

I can't understand
(I can't understand)
Why you only want me when I'm sleeping

Strange girl
All dressed up in blue
Don't care that I'm in love with you
It's not fair you never seem to notice
You walk past me in a daze
Lost in your mind
Do I have to wait 'til midnight?

Come to me I am waiting
Is it alright
If I sneak into your room at night?
And banish all the things
That make you lonely?

Is it alright
(Is it alright?)
If I just turn out the light
Make you stay 'til morning comes
And hold me

Is it alright
(Is it alright?)
Is it alright
(Is it alright?)
Is it alright to be lonely?

Is it alright
(Is it alright?)
Is it alright
(Is it alright?)
Is it alright to be lonely?
