

The Lovin' Spoonful, Close Your Eyes

Close your eyes never mind, you can try and try but some days have no songs and the easy things go wrong as you push your life along hold on

Open wide here am I
and my name is friend and I know you know I know how deep your sadness goes when all the doors are closed, let go

Close your eyes never mind you can try and try
