

The Lumineers, Nightshade (piosenka z serialu G some of us love to think of life as a game others are born into royalty and can never behave

some find a freedom
like man in a cage
oh no

some priest insisted
it's a test of the faith and only holy devotion can keep the devils away there's only so much a man can pray
oh no

oh my love
oh my love
spare my blood
spare my blood

I saw the footprints n the white of the snow I counted thousands and I was just a rider alone 18 degrees and eighty miles from home
oh no

we built a wall to keep the devils at bay a distant army was marching through the night and the day I swore an oath and with my life I would pay
oh no

oh my love
oh my love
spare my blood
Nightshade
won't you take me away
and I could hold my breath
for another day
but it was all
it was all
for the throne

we were surrounded
and the ending was near all of the sudden a ranger arrived a savior appeared
made it to safety
but the devil was here
oh no

Nightshade
it was all
for the throne
