

The Lynns, Crazy World Of Love

(Pasty Lynn/Peggy Lynn/Philip Russell)

It started out
With just a glance
Some conversation, slow dance
It was nothing
It didn't mean too much
But all of a sudden he's on your mind
You think about him all the time
Welcome girl, to the crazy world of love

Your heart's doing somersaults
Head spinning like a top with thoughts of only him
You pace up and down the hall waiting for his phone call
Can't wait to your baby again
Go ahead
Try to deny it
But your dreamin' from cloud nine

Welcome girl, to the crazy world of love

Don't get too close, put up your guard
You might wind up with a broken heart
That's something you've had your share of
The strange emotions burn within
You can't believe your falling
Welcome girl, to the crazy world of love

Your heart's doing somersaults
Head spinning like a top with thoughts of only him
You pace up and down the hall waiting for his phone call
Can't wait to your baby again
Go ahead
Try to deny it
But your dreamin' from cloud nine
Welcome girl, to the crazy world of love
Oh welcome girl, to the crazy world of love
