

The Mamas & The Papas, Pacific Coast Highway

Rollin' along Pacific Coast Highway
Bummin' along to my radio
Saw a blond hitchin' my way
Rolled up and said "how far do you wanna go?"
She'd been hummin' thumbin' hitchin' and wishin'
For a good day on Pacific Coast Highway

Looked in at me, and when I could see her
She seemed to be somebody I ought to know
Opened the door, sat down beside me
Then with a roar, we started to roll
She'd been hummin' thumbin' hitchin' and wishin'
For a good day on Pacific Coast Highway

Looked like a swan, but brown as Chuck Berry
A summer's dawn, yeah, light as a fairy
We got to town, she said her name was Mary
She'd been hit, she'd been whipped
She'd been hummin' she's been bummin' all her life
(On the highway, on and on)
(On the highway, on and on)
