

The Mavericks, Here Comes The Rain

Your love's a heartache
That's torn me apart
You've watched my heart break
Right from the start
You took everything you wanted
And now that you are gone

Chorus 1
Here comes the rain
Falling down on me
I'm showered in pain
Nothing remains
Of what used to be

Chorus 2
Here comes the night
Dark as my soul
There's no end in sight
No shining light
No love to hold
Here comes the rain

I must have been dreaming
I must have been blind
But I never thought you
Could be so unkind
Tomorrow I'll forget you
But I can't forget you now
