

The Methadones, Straight Up Pop Song

there's something
i'm trying to say
play what you want
and let the chips fall where they may because i left you
feeling ?smart?
it gives me hope
and it keeps me alive
keeps me alive
and here's a
straight-up
pop song for you
do what you want with it i'll get my ?low income track?
and you'll be talking shit behind my back 'cause a rock song
is yesterday's news
for better or worse
it's who i am and what i do
and here's a
pop song for you
do what you'd like with it it's not like your band deserves your big break now everything, you say, is sour grapes sold your records and guitar but things had fallen through music means a lot to me it must not mean much to you
and here's a
pop song for you
some day you'll consider and you move on
