

The Mission, Cannibal

The hounds are a-howlin' and the moon is so full
How bright are the stars whilst the dark can be so cruel
Hunting for prey across this ocean of a night
Capture and devour, come and sate your appetite

Cast your spell, I'll be a victim for you
Can't your smell, another victim for you?

Throw me on the fire and I'll melt in the heat
The smell of burning flesh has never quite been so sweet
Tear the meat from the bone and leave nothing to waste
Have yourself a feast cos you're now got the taste

Cast your spell, I'll be a victim for you
Can't your smell, another victim for you?
Can't you tell, I'll be a victim for you?
So eat well, another victim for you

I wanna be seduced and ravaged
Your voodoo's working on me
I wanna be debauched and savaged
Come and work your voodoo on me
