

The Mission, In Silhouette

Just because you disagree it doesn't make me wrong
And just because you think I'm weak it doesn't make you strong

Push me too far or hurt what's mine
I will retaliate I won't hesitate
I've told you once now I'm telling you twice
I will retaliate make no mistake

Do you get what you deserve or deserve what you get?
'Cause only guilt can break a man break a man more than regret

Push me too far or hurt what's mine
I will retaliate I won't hesitate

I've told you once and now I've told you twice
I will retaliate make no mistake

You can't take back the things you say
Or the love you've given away
Success is getting what you want but happiness
Is wanting what you get I'm in silhouette

I won't forgive and I won't forget
I will retaliate I won't hesitate
And you will live with cold regret
I will retaliate I'm in silhouette
