

The Mission, Spider And The Fly

Save me, save me, save me from the spider, begs the fly
I'm caught in her web and she's bleeding me dry
She wears her seduction like the bride wears her veil
She promised me Heaven but all she gives me is Hell

Oh no, no she's pulling me under
She's dragging me down, tearing me asunder
I'm sweating hot steel bullets, my mouth is bone dry
My heart beats too fast, can't catch my breath
The spider the spider traps the fly

She dresses in white but her heart's as black as sin
Her legs are wrapped around me feel her crawl across my skin
As she sucks the life outta me. I can't fly anymore
And I shiver and I shudder and surrender to the whore

Oh no, no, no, no, no she's dragging me under
She's pulling me down, tearing me asunder
I'm sweating hot steel bullets, my mouth, my mouth is bone dry
My heart beats too fast, can't catch my breath,
The spider, the spider's trapped the fly
