

The Mission, Stars Don't Shine Without You

I'll cry myself to sleep 'cause you're not here by my side
I'll cry 'cause you're not with me, with me tonight
I'll cry myself a river and drown in a torrent of tears
I'll cry 'cause the stars have thrown down all their spears
The stars don't shine without you
And it makes me, makes me sad and blue
The stars don't shine without you
And there's nothing, no nothing I can do
I'll cry 'cause the stars don't shine for me no more
