

The Mission, That Tears Shall Drown The Wind

I can't believe that you've been faking all this time
That's such a spiteful thing to say
I can't believe you never really cared
How am I supposed to know that you feel this way?

I don't see how it matters now
That tears shall drown the wind
I don't see why it makes you cry
That tears shall drown the wind

I never promised you that the stars would come to us
You have to know I never lied
I know you feel it's like waiting for the end of the world
Sometimes it's easy just to let it, let it slide

There ain't no sense in making accusations
No matter if you're wrong you're always right
There ain't no point in recrimination
I really don't have the strength to put up a fight
