

The Mitch Hansen Band, Flower in the Shade

Life never turns out how you think
You're floating through complacency and then you start to think
On the plane
I left behind the life I knew
But little bit I know that I'll be landing next to you
I'll walk the walk
I'll fight the fight
Keep calling him by his first name
Basically childhood friend
My forest heart
Sat up the rain
Come bring it out so I can soak you in
Let the story begin
From the desert to the trees
And from alone, to you and me
I promise you I'll always be
Just be on the reach of the sun
In the shade my life has finally begun
Consider this my fairest morning
Now that I met you I'll never let you go
I'll walk the walk
I'll fight the fight
Keep calling him by his first name
Basically childhood friend
My forest heart
Sat up the rain
Come bring it out so I can soak you in
Let the story begin
From the desert to the trees
And from alone, to you and me
I promise you I'll always be
Just be on the reach of the sun
In the shade my life has finally begun
This can not be
Has swallowed me
And I don't have ever want to leave
This can not be
Has swallowed me
My life has moved from brown to green
From the desert to the trees
And from alone, to you and me
I promise you I'll always be
Just be on the reach of the sun
In the shade my life has finally begun
